

Photo by Stuart Zolotorow of the completed renovation in 2008 to the Bob Hieronimus mural "A Little Help From Our Friends," located at 3333 Greenmount Ave in Baltimore. Originally designed in 1996, the mural features portraits of Gandhi, Jackie Joyner-Kersey, Gang Liu (Tiananmen Square), Rachel Carson, Bob Marley, Bob Dylan, Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., Harriet Tubman, Hall of Famer Leon Day from the Negro Leagues, and Baltimore philanthropist Robert Levy. This mural won the best mural award from WMAR-TV in '96. Sons of Bob Marley, Ziggy and Stephen Marley, visited the mural in 1996 and 1997. At the dedication ceremony Baltimore was host to Rachel Carson's grandson, China democracy advocate Liu Gang, Hall of Famer Leon Day's widow, Geraldine, and other heroes and dignitaries. More info about all Hieronimus murals and artcars and other artwork in the Art Gallery at www.21stCenturyRadio.com.